Chalice Bearers: Anne D, Gail H

It is a great privilege to gather, share stories of faith and worship God on this beautiful territory, which we now know as Pickering, but which has been the site of human activity – and therefore storytelling and worship – for many thousands of years. We wish to honour the ancestral guardians of this land and its waterways: the Wendat, the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, the Mississaugas of Scugog, Hiawatha and Alderville First Nations. The treaties that were signed for this particular parcel of land are collectively referred to as the Williams Treaties of 1923. Today many Indigenous peoples, including the Métis Nation, continue to call this land home and act as its stewards, and this responsibility extends to all peoples, to share and care for this land for generations to come.

Celebrant: The Reverend Shelly Pollard

Celebrant: This is the day that Christ the Lamb of God gave himself into the hands of those who would slay him.

This is the day that Christ gathered with his disciples in the upper room.

This is the day that Christ took a towel and washed the disciples' feet, giving us an example that we should do to others as he has done to us.

This is the day that Christ our God gave us this holy feast, that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may here proclaim his Holy Sacrifice and be partakers of his resurrection, and at the last day may reign with him in heaven.

Opening Hymn: 77 The Son of God Proclaim

The Son of God proclaim, the Lord of time and space;

the God who bade the light break forth
Now shines in Jesus' face.
Behold his outstretched hands;
through all was in his power, he took the towel and basin then,
and serves us in this hour.

He, God's creative Word,
the church's Lord and head, here bids us gather as his friends, and share his wine and bread.

The Lord of life and death with wondering praise we sing;
we break the bread at his command, and name him God and King.

We take this cup in hope:
for he, who gladly bore
the shameful cross, is risen again, and reigns for evermore.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Celebrant: Almighty God,

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Trisagion (Sung)

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy immortal one, have mercy upon us.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy immortal one, have mercy upon us.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy immortal one, have mercy upon us.

The Collect

Celebrant: O God,
your Son Jesus Christ has left to us this meal of bread and wine in which we share his body and his blood.
May we who celebrate this sign of his great love show in our lives the fruits of his redemption;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

First Reading EXODUS 12:1-4 5-10, 11-14 Reader: Tamara M

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF EXODUS

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbour in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it.

Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgements: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 116:1, 10-17

Celebrant: I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

All: How shall I repay the Lord for all the good things he has done for me?

Celebrant: I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord.

All: I will fulfil my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people.

Celebrant: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his servants.

All: O Lord, I am your servant; I am your servant and the child of your handmaid; you have freed me from my bonds.

Celebrant: I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call upon the name of the Lord.

All: I will fulfil my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people, Celebrant: In the courts of the Lord's house, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

Celebrant: Eternal God, faithful in your tender compassion, you give us hope for our life here and hereafter through the victory of your only Son. When we share his cup of salvation, revive in us the joy of this everlasting gift. We ask his in his name.

All: Amen.

Second Reading 1 CORINTHIANS 11:23-26

Reader: Sharon J

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading JOHN 13:1-17, 31B-35

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John.

All: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean." After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord - and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them. Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Celebrant: The Gospel of Christ.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Hymn : 553 Ubi Caritas et Amor

Homily:

The Rev Shelly Pollard

Moment of Silent Reflection

Washing of the Feet

Two chairs are set up on either side of the altar. Come forward as you feel lead to have your feet washed.

Celebrant: Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the life of the kingdom of God come not by power, authority, or even miracle, but by such lowly service.

Therefore, I invite you who share in the royal priesthood of Christ, to come forward, that I may recall whose servant I am by following the example of my Master. But come remembering his admonition that what will be done for you is also to be done by you to others, for “a servant is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.”

Come forward as you feel led.

Prayers of the People

Litany 14-Lent

Intercessor: William M

Intercessor: With confidence and trust let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Lord, have mercy.”

For the one holy catholic and apostolic Church throughout the world, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness it may preach the gospel to the ends of the earth, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For those preparing for baptism and for their teachers and sponsors, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For peace in the world, that a spirit of respect and reconciliation may grow among nations and peoples, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For all whom we have injured or offended, we pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, have mercy.

Intercessor: For grace to amend our lives and to further the reign of God, we pray to you, Lord.
All: Lord, have mercy.

Confession & Absolution

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites us to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Moment of Silence

Celebrant: Most merciful God,
All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
All: Amen.

THE PEACE

Please stand in body or in spirit

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All: And also with you.

Offertory Hymn: 504 Jesu, Jesu, Fill Us with Your Love

Refrain:

Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love, show us how to serve the neighbours we have from you.
Kneels at the feet of his friends,

Silently washes their feet,
Master who acts as a slave to them. [Refrain]

Neighbors are rich and poor,
Varied in colour and race,
Neighbors are near and far away. [Refrain]

These are the ones we should serve,
These are the ones we should love:
All these are neighbors to us and you. [Refrain]

Loving puts us on our knees,
Serving as though we are slaves;
This is the way we should live with you. [Refrain]

Kneel at the feet of our friends,
Silently washing their feet:
This is the way we should live with you. [Refrain]

Prayer over the Gifts

Please stand in body or in spirit

Celebrant: Father,
 we spread this table
 to remember the loving sacrifice of Jesus Christ, your Son.
 Accept all we offer you this day.
 Bind us together in his love and in the love he has commanded us to bring one another;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Eucharistic Prayer 2

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ,
our Saviour and Redeemer.

He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things.
By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature.
He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you;
and so he won for you a holy people.

He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross,
that he might shatter the chains of evil and death,
and banish the darkness of sin and despair.
By his resurrection
he brings us into the light of your presence.

Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant: Holy and gracious God, accept our praise,
through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you."

In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore,
his death and resurrection,
we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.
We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church.

Gather into one
all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ.

All glory and honour are yours,

Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer (Sung)

Celebrant: As our Saviour taught us, let us pray and sing,

All: Our Father in heaven hallowed be thy name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen, amen, amen.

Breaking of Bread

7-Lent and Holy Week

Celebrant: We break this bread,

All: Communion in Christ's body once broken.

Celebrant: Let your Church be the wheat which bears its fruit in dying,

All: If we have died with him, we shall live with him; if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

THE COMMUNION

Agnus Dei

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world; have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world; have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

CP 745 Lamb of God.

Music: Becket Gerald Senchur (1946-).

Celebrant: The gifts of God for the People of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion (for those who choose not to receive Communion, or are following the service online)

Celebrant: Those wishing to do so may make their spiritual communion by joining in this prayer with me now:

All: My Jesus, I believe that you are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you, and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Communion Hymn: SNC # 49 Lord, why have you forsaken me?

Lord, why have you forsaken me and why are you so far away from my complaint and my distress poured out before you night and day ?

Yet, you are holy and the songs of praise of Israel are your throne; when our ancestors called on you, you saved them rescued all your own .

But I am mocked and put to scorn. All those who see me laugh and say, "You trust in God, so let us see the help of God to whom you pray?"

Yet you, Oh Lord, have been my God and only hope since I was born. With trouble near me, none can help; my Saviour, leave me not for-lorn.

Anthem: At the Table of the Lord

Prayer after Communion

Please stand in body or in spirit

Celebrant: Holy God,
source of all love,
on the night of his betrayal
Jesus gave his disciples a new commandment, to love one another as he loved them.
Write this commandment in our hearts;
give us the will to serve others as he was the servant of all, who gave his life and died for us,
yet is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

At the end of the service, we proceed with the stripping of the altar. Cloths, ornaments, hangings, and all adornments are removed from the sanctuary and from around the church. All lights are extinguished. During this time, Psalm 22 is read.

Psalm 22
